

THE YEAR'S LAST CURTAIN CALL

Reflecting on Key moments in 2018

As the year draws to a close, the University takes a trip down memory lane to reflect on key moments that defined this year. What a year it has been!

First lady brings anti-violence campaign home to her alma mater

The UNAM Commencement Ceremony on the Main Campus was graced by the presence of Madame Monica Geingos, First Lady of the Republic of Namibia, as a Guest Speaker. The First Lady used the occasion to remind students how the decisions they make while at university impact their life trajectory.

New course will transform medical care

Namibia to produce its own specialist anaesthetists for the first time

The first six students have just started the University of Namibia's new Masters in Anaesthesia, supported by the highly successful Phoenix Project partnership with Cardiff University in Wales, UK. They will be the first specialist anaesthetists trained in the country.

UNAM bids farewell to Prof Lazarus Hangula

In appreciation of your astute leadership. 2004 - 2018

National Accounting Talent Search brews fierce competition

LTR: Prof Kenneth Matengu (VC, UNAM), Mr Cameron Kotze (Country Managing Partner, EY), Ms Emily Kandjaba (Executive Director, BuildIt Outapi) and Mr Arne Stier (Vice President, ICAN) flanked by the Top 3 National Winners (All 1st Prize) from St. Paul's College, Gabriel Taapopi SS and St. Boniface College, respectively.

Dedicated to recruiting young talent in the field of Accounting, the National Accounting Talent Search this year yielded three tied winners from St. Paul's College, Gabriel Taapopi Secondary School and St. Boniface College. This year's main sponsors were; Ernst & Young N$ 75, 000.00 ICAN N$ 40,000.00 and Build It Outapi N$ 15, 000.000

3rd Chancellor takes the reigns

Legacy continues with Inauguration of Dr Nangola Mbumba as Chancellor

The Vice President of the Republic of Namibia, and newly elected third Chancellor of the University of Namibia (UNAM), His Excellency Dr Nangolo Mbumba, expressed his gratitude for "the honour to serve as UNAM's third Chancellor" and vowed "...to continue the legacy of my predecessors...", at his inauguration ceremony on 05 April.

High tech digitization scanner docks at UNAM library

Basler Afrika Bibliographien, the Internationale Forschungsbeiträge (an independent NGO), sponsored the UNAM Library with high tech equipment worth N$ 700 000. The equipment are an A3 Book Scanner - Zeuchel OS16000 and an A3 Photographic Scanner - Microtek Artiscan 3200XL

UNAM welcomes new Vice Chancellor Prof Kenneth Matengu

Chancellor's Golf Day raises N$540 000

Private and public sector donates to Student Hardship Fund

Former Students Donate over N$ 100 000 to UNAM

FLTR: Mr Sam Shivute, Hon. Dr Peya Mushelenga and Prof. Kenneth Matengu

The Alumni Association of the University of Namibia raised N$ 114 970 during a recently held Varsity Student Representative Council Reunion. The event targeted former student leaders who had studied at the institution during the period of 1992-1997.